Do you own and operate more than one performing arts venue or facility?

Stage Queensland offers a multiple-venue membership package to enable all of your venues to reap the rewards of membership. Where multiple performing arts venues are owned and operated by a common legal entity:

- a full Ordinary or Associate Membership fee applies for the primary member venue. The fee is based on the class of membership (i.e. Ordinary or Associate) in accordance with the Constitution;
- a discounted fee, currently set at 50% of the cost of an Ordinary Membership, applies to the second venue irrespective of that venue's class of membership (i.e. no further discount applies if the venue is an Associate member);
- any other additional venues are free of charge irrespective of that venue's class of membership

Please refer to Stage Queensland's "Multiple-Venue Policy" for full terms and conditions.

How do I apply?

Once you've identified which class of membership is appropriate for you or your organisation, please complete the nomination form on the following page and submit to Stage Queensland as per the details listed on the form. Please note, every applicant for membership of Stage Queensland needs to be proposed by one member of the Association and seconded by another member – this can be done by members of the Management Committee at the time of assessing your application.

Please note, in accordance with the rules of the Association:

Each member, other than an individual, must at all times have a nominated representative to represent it in the Association and if an Ordinary Member, to vote on its behalf. A nominated representative must be a person in a senior management position with the member such as the Centre Director, General Manager, Programming Director or equivalent. The member must notify the Association in writing of its nominated representative and if it revokes that nomination, the new nominated representative.

Applications for membership and the category of membership, shall be considered by the Management Committee at the next meeting of the Management Committee after the receipt of the application or the Management Committee may at its discretion defer consideration of the application and present it for resolution at the next General Meeting of the Association.

Upon the acceptance or rejection of an application for membership the secretary shall notify the applicant in writing of such acceptance or rejection. Please allow 28 days for notification.
